

Kraków, 24 May 2018

Cooperative Banks in a Post-Crisis Environment

13.00-13.30

Registration/coffee

13.30-14.30

Opening of the conference

Director of NBP – Cracow Branch and Rector for Scientific Research of Cracow University of Economics

Opening speeches:

- prof. Marek Chrzanowski, Chairperson, Polish Financial Supervision Authority (KNF)
- dr Krzysztof Pietraszkiewicz, President, The Polish Bank Association (ZBP)

14.30-16.00

Session 1: European cooperative banks in a post-crisis environment

Chair: prof. UEK dr hab. Ewa Miklaszewska

- Prof. Giovanni Ferri, Vice-Rector, LUMSA University, Rome and Director of Center for Relational Banking and Economics (CERBE)
Introductory remarks
- Prof. Hans Groeneveld, TIAS, Tilburg University
The post-crisis changes in the European cooperative sector
- Prof. Monika Marcinkowska, University of Łódź
Contemporary trends in banking – can cooperative banks fit in?

16.00-16.30

Coffee

16.30-18.00

Session 2: The restructuring of the cooperative banking sectors in the EU

Chair: Servaas van Schijndel, Rabobank Nederland

- Juan Lopez, Federcasse
The reforms of the Italian cooperative groups
- dr. Eric Meyer, Institut für Genossenschaftswesen, Westfälische Wilhelms-Universität Münster
Post crisis restructuring of the German cooperative banks
- dr Magdalena Kozińska, NBP/SGH
Resolution in the Spanish banking sector: the case of BPE
- dr Clements Akinsoyinu
Post financial crisis performance and challenges to the British building societies
- dr Andrzej Walitza, Cracow University of Economics
The restructuring of cooperative banks in non-European countries